Best Practice -II

1. Title of the Practice: Financial Assistance for upliftment of needy and deserving students

2 Objectives:

- To provide financial help to deserving students who belongs to economically backwards class
- To avoid drop out of deserving students from education due to financial Crises.
- To provide financial aid to all worthy students without regard to their gender, caste, or creed.
- To provide help to village students for higher education and to stand on their own feet.

3. The Context:

The institute, is located on Sangli-Miraj road. It is becoming a favorite destination for quality education for students. Many students come from economically weaker sections, and are not able to pay whole fees of the institute. The institute found that, due to the acute financial crisis, quite a good students fail to attend their classes regularly and sometimes they drop out from institute. From this experience, we believe that our first and most important goal should be to concentrate on this issue and find a solution. We believe it is our job to support and develop them both academically and financially. For that the institute provides the "Financial Assistance" for such students. Institute take it as its social responsibility.

4. The Practice

- The Financial Assistance is open for all students.
- The criterion for Financial Assistance is program admission type (Degree and MBA), admission allocated of students.
- The criterion for Financial Assistance sanction is financial background and the percentage in the last examination attended.
